Ike Vacations In Key West

Gets More Exercise On Doctors' Orders

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—President Eisenhower, vacationing here, is doing just as the doctors said: getting more exercise.

He started right in after arrival from the capital Wednesday afternoon.

After lunch and a nap, he practiced golf shots for about 30 minutes on the baseball diamond close by his living quarters on the naval base here. Then he took an hour-long stroll, visiting a dock where a number of submarines were moored.

Visited Amberjack

He showed special interest in one of the subs, the Amberjack, which right after World War II was skippered by his naval aide Cmdr. Edward L. Beach. Beach, who was along on the walk, described some of the features of the submarine.

The President appeared relaxed in lightweight khaki trousers, khaki sweater and a dark blue sport shirt. The sun was bright and the temperature in the middle 70s.

Along with him on the stroll were his personal physician Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder; his youngest brother Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, president of Pennsylvania State University; and a few White House staff members, Beach among them.

Attractions Gallery

The President's golf practice attracted a small gallery. James C. Hagerly, White House press secretary, said it was the first time since Sept. 23—the day before his heart attack—that Eisenhower had done anything more than putt.

The nine-iron club which Eisenhower used required a three-quarter swing and there was nothing restrained about it. He hit about 30 balls 50 to 80 yards.

Patrol Buys Land For New Post; Building Starts Soon

It was announced today by Col. George Mingle, superintendent of the Ohio State Highway Patrol, that construction of a new patrol headquarters west of Lisbon along Highway 30 would get under way within 90 days.

Col. Mingle said that land for the new construction has been purchased from Leo and Blanche Capehart of Lisbon. The one and one-quarter acre site is located one mile east of Lisbon along Highway 30, immediately east of the Capehart Motel.

An approximately $55,000 building will house the patrol facilities now located at Salem.

The new building is of a modern-type design patterned after other new posts recently built by the patrol in other sections of the state. It is the first new patrol post to be constructed in Patrol District 4.

In announcing the purchase of the site and approximate date for beginning of construction, Col. Mingle acknowledged the help and support of Columbiana County Representative Clarence L. Wetzel and his associates of the 101st General Assembly.

"Through the interest and support of Representative Wetzel," he said, "we were able to acquire such a desirable location for a patrol post. With our Patrol post located centrally at Lisbon," Col. Mingle said, "we will be able to provide more efficient services to the people of the area."

It is expected that the new post will be completed by early fall of 1956.

To Enforce Closing Hours On New Year's

Normal closing hours will be enforced for Salem's liquor permit premises on New Year's Eve, Mayor Dean B. Cranmer announced today.

William C. Bryant, director of the Ohio department of liquor control, last week pointed out that alcoholic beverage sales and consumption under C-1, C-2, D-1, D-3, and D-4 permits must stop at 1 a. m. If a D-3 permit holder also holds a D-3A, he may sell until 2:30 a. m. A D-3 permit holder may also sell until 2:30 a. m.

Ohio Enforcement Chief Joseph S. Harrell, warned yesterday that department investigators would enforce regular closing hours. "Erroneous rumors are being circulated about closing hours on New Year's Eve," he stated. "To clarify any doubts, let me emphasize that alcoholic beverage sales and consumption must stop at the time specified on each type permit."

Salem police will take home any driver New Year's Eve who feels he has had too much to drink, Police Chief George R. Earley stated today. The driver must surrender his car keys to the police and live within the city limits.

Ike May Seek 10-Year Aid Plan

Request Could Stir Congress Opposition

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration reportedly plans to ask Congress for power to commit the United States to a 10-year program of economic aid to friendly nations.

The sum for any country would vary, depending on the size of the project to be backed. A maximum ranging from half a billion to a billion dollars is being considered, with the money to be parceled out in annual installments.

Such a request would be virtually certain to stir up new opposition among members of Congress already critical of the administration's plan to boost its 1956 request for new foreign aid funds to nearly five billion dollars. Congress voted $2,700,000,000 this year.

Without reference to the new long-term commitment the administration is reported to want, Sen. George (D-Ga.) said today he believes "there will have to be a very serious reappraisal" by Congress of the foreign aid situation. Sees Trim Desired

George, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, told newsmen in reply to a question that "sentiment has been growing in Congress to trim economic aid way down" since many free world countries, particularly in Europe, have shown excellent economic progress.

Congress has normally insisted that economic aid be granted strictly on a year-to-year basis, without any long-term commitments.

Seek To Build Pike Without Toledo Spur

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Turnpike Commission today decided to concentrate on trying to build Ohio's second turnpike without the spur to Toledo.

The commission recommended to the state highway director that consulting engineers complete plans that would slice from 170 million dollars to 200 million dollars from the project as originally contemplated.

The original construction cost had been estimated at $16 million dollars. That would include toll roads from Cincinnati to Conneaut with a branch running from near Delaware to the Toledo area.

Khrushchev Accuses Ike Of 'Crude Interference'

Bartha Display Takes First In Lighting Contest

Judges Make Awards In Other Home Decorating Projects

Stephen Bartha of 1815 Southeast Boulevard has been awarded the grand prize of a $50 bond for the best overall Christmas home lighting display in the Lions Club sponsored annual contest.

Bartha's display consists of the house lined in blue lights and a red-lighted Christmas tree placed in the interior of the house. A manger scene with a miniature doe and a Santa Claus and snow scene are featured in the exterior display.

Five judges from the Ohio Edison Co. judged the 70 entries last night on a card system, using numbers which were later matched with names by the Lions Club members.

According to the judges, "several displays in both the city and rural areas could have won prizes but were not entered in the contest."

Winners in the six contest classifications were:

City outside — first, Milford Landwert of 1075 N. Union Ave., $50 bond; second, F. A. Zamarrelli of 940 N. Ellsworth, $10; third, John Rottenborn of 537 Jennings Ave., table lamp; fourth, D. C. Davis of 1076 Highland Ave., lamp set.

Rural outside — first, Clyde Williams of Albany Road, $25 bond; second, Fred Puttkamer of Greenford, $10; third, R. D. Knopp of Lisbon-Canfield Road, $5; fourth, Leland Knoedler of Damascus R. City doorway — first, Fred S. Sweitzer Jr., of 217 S. Fair Ave., $25 bond; second, Michael Schuller, of 615 E. Eighth St., blanket; third, Wallace King of 1020 Highland Ave., $10; fourth, James DeLuca of 944 Jones Drive, candy.

Two Lisbon People Are Hurt In Falls

Mrs. Wilma Bailey, 39, of 365 E. Chestnut St. Lisbon is in good condition at Salem City Hospital today, recovering from a fractured left wrist received when she fell on ice on her way to work this morning.

Also in good condition at the hospital is Harold Pickering, 55, of 507 W. Lincoln Way, Lisbon, who received a possible fracture of the right arm in a fall on ice near his home this morning.

Quints' Spokesman Says They Want A Life Of Their Own

MONTREAL (AP)—A spokesman for the Dionne quintuplets says they are staying away from home to prove they want a life of their own, but they will visit their parents sometime in January.

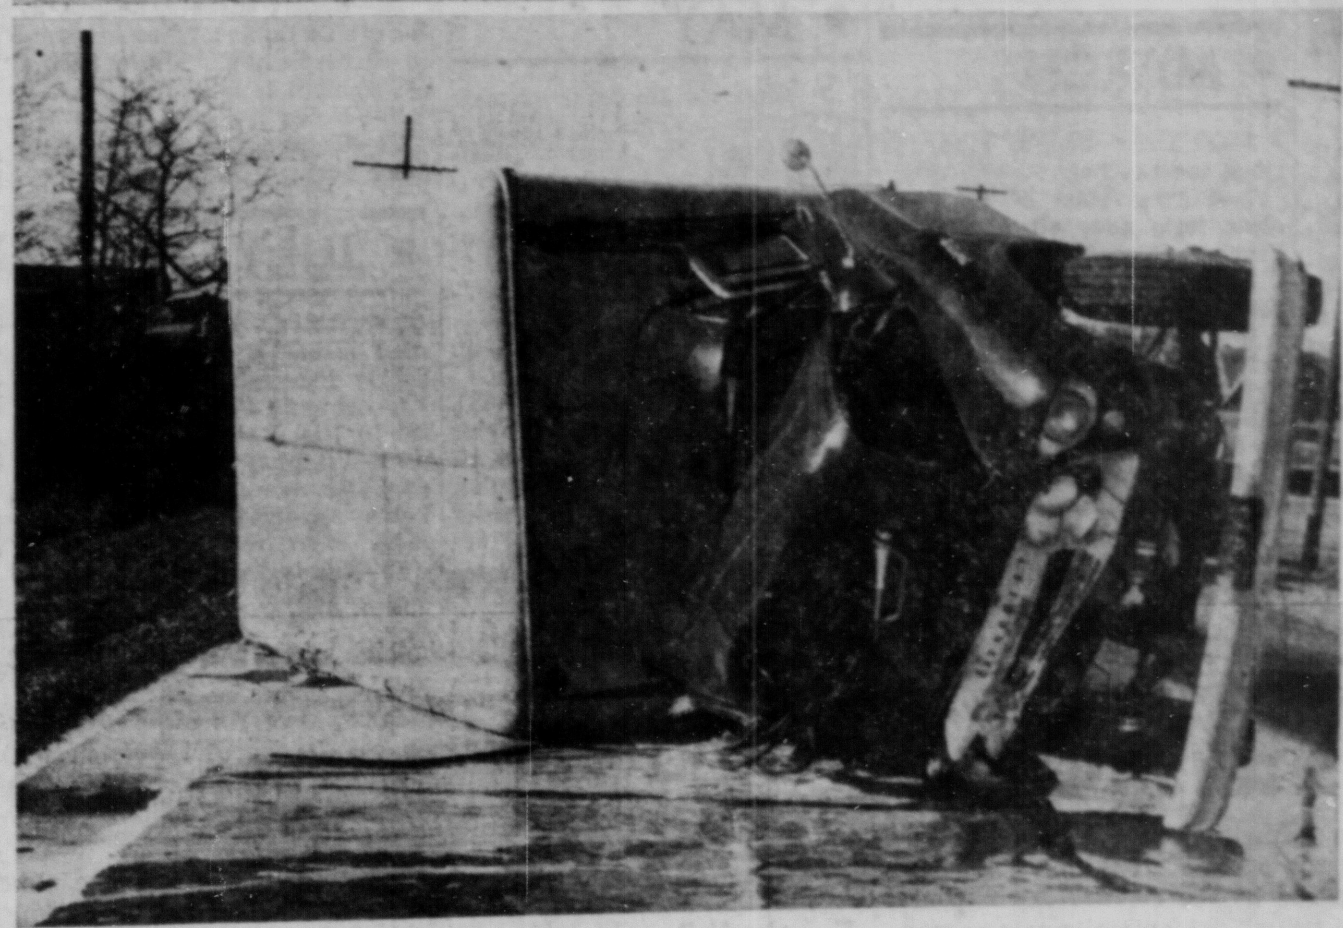

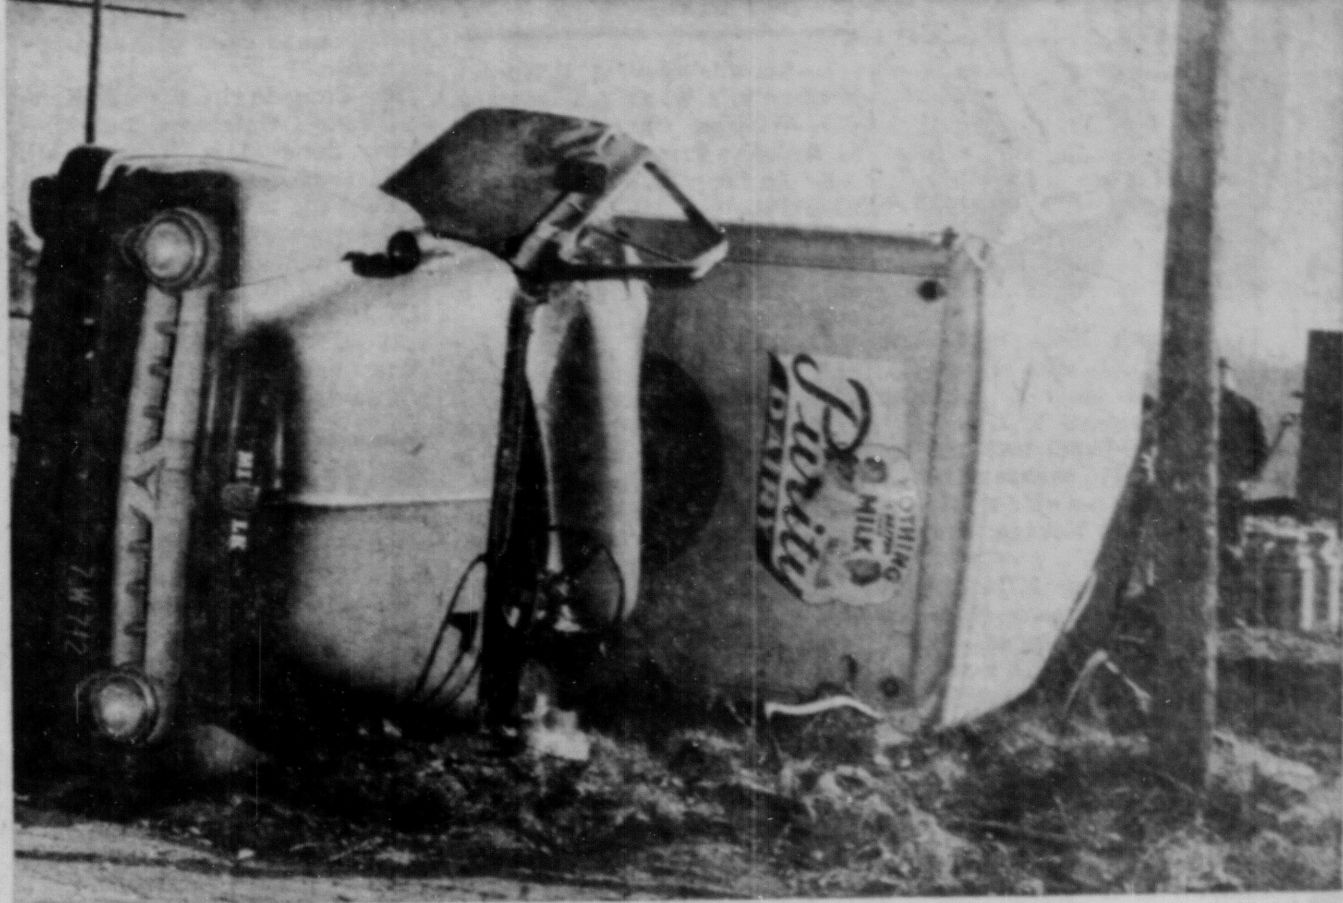

G. Harold Edwards, a trust company executive who befriended the four sisters while handling their finances, said they had planned to visit the family home at Callender, Ont., for New Year's until their Oliva Dionne charged publicly that "outsiders" were splitting them away from the family.

By going home now they would be "giving in," Edwards explained. He said the quintuplets "want to make a private life of their own."

The four surviving quintuplets—Annette, Cecile, Marie and Yvonne—held a small party Wednesday night in the apartment they have FATAL CRASH SCENE—Edgar A. Wilson, 39, of the Damascus Rd. was thrown from his milk truck (pictured at top) and fatally injured after it was struck from the rear and upset by a dairy truck driven by Lawrence Boehm, 24, of Homeworth which spun around and overturned at the scene of the collision on the Damascus Rd., three miles west of Salem, at 11:15 a.m. Wednesday.

5 Motorists Fined In Mayor's Court

Five motorists were fined a total of $295 and costs for traffic violations by Mayor Dean B. Cranmer Wednesday.

Frank Ladina, 37, Cleveland was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail for drunk driving.

Bill G. Clark, 29, Camby, Ind., was fined $47 and costs for overloading his truck. Donald M. Minnich, 31, of Alliance, was fined $35 and costs also on an overloading charge.

Thomas E. Davis, 56, Youngstown, was cited by the state patrol for an overloaded vehicle and posted a $58 bond.

Lillian V. Armeni, 25, of 1894 Maple St., was fined $10 and costs for failure to yield the right of way and $25 and costs for driving without a license.

Inquest Planned In Fatal Truck Crash

A coroner's inquest will be held to investigate the collision of two milk trucks Wednesday noon on the Damascus Road, three miles west of Salem, which claimed the life of Edgar Allen Wilson, 39, of Salem.

It was the second fatal traffic mishap in the district in two days and sent the Columbiana County traffic-toll for the year to 30. Richard Wier died in a mishap on the Lisbon Road Tuesday.

Mr. Wilson was pronounced dead at the scene of the crash which involved his Purity Dairy truck and an Andalusia Dairy truck operated by Lawrence Boehm, 24, of Homeworth.

According to state highway patrolmen, both trucks were traveling east at 11:15 a.m. when Wilson slowed down to make a right turn into a driveway and was hit from the rear by the truck operated by Boehm.

The impact caused the Boehm truck to turn over in the road, spilling its milk contents on the highway. The crash also flipped the Wilson truck completely over, sending the top of the truck cab against a utility pole on the right side of the highway.

The fatality was added to the Columbiana County traffic total since the accident occurred on the south side of Route 62, which divides Mahoning and Columbiana counties. There were a total of 24 traffic fatalities recorded for the entire year of 1954.

Funeral Saturday

Funeral services for Mr. Wilson will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the First Friends Church in charge of Rev. Harold Winn.

Wilson was born in Paris, Stark county, April 27, 1916, the son of Ira and Eba Locke Wilson. He married Dorthea Allen in Salem in 1940. The operator of the Wilson Trailer Court on Damascus Rd., he hauled milk from farms to dairies. He was a member of the First Friends Church and Perry Mason Lodge.

He is survived by his wife; his father and mother of Alliance; a daughter, Louise; three sons, Roger, Ronald and Reed at home, and one sister, Mrs. Roy Beck of Alliance.

Friends may call at the Arbuthnot-Pearce Funeral Home Friday evening. Burial will be in Grandview Cemetery.

Boasts Russian H-Bomb Can Be Hiked In Power

Attacks President For Christmas Note To Eastern Europe

MOSCOW (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev today accused President Eisenhower of "crude interference" in the affairs of Communist nations, and dismissed his open skies arms inspection as "nothing more than military intelligence."

He boasted that the Soviet hydrogen bomb "can be considerably increased in power." At the same time he criticized Secretary of State Dulles as "advocating massive retaliation and other absurdities."

The Communist party chief spoke for two hours before the Supreme Soviet (parliament).

"Some Western politicians have a strange idea of the Geneva spirit," he asserted. "They want us to disarm our army and also to disarm morally and politically."

Khrushchev said he spoke about Eisenhower critically "most unwillingly" because he respected the President "so much." But, he declared, the President's Christmas message to the people of Eastern Europe.

WASHINGTON (AP)—United States officials were astonished at Nikita Khrushchev's direct attack today on President Eisenhower. They thought this action by a top Soviet leader may mean the development of a still tougher line in Russian foreign policy.

Experts here found it significant, moreover, that the immediate reason for the personal attack was a rather routine Christmas message in which Eisenhower spoke of prayers for freedom in Eastern Europe.

European Communist nations "is quite incompatible with the Geneva spirit."

Broadcast By Radio This referred to a presidential message broadcast by Radio Free Europe saying:

"During the Christmas season I want you to know that the American people recognize the trials under which you are suffering; join us in your concern for the restoration of individual freedoms and political liberty; and share your faith that right in the end will prevail to bring you once again among the free nations of the world."

Khrushchev criticized Gov. Averell Harriman of New York for a similar message.

"To pray for a change of regime in the people's democracies is crude interference in the internal affairs of those countries and only leads to inciting passions and the armaments race," said the Communist leader, as 1,400 members of the Supreme Soviet listened attentively.

(As far as U. S. officials could recall it was the first time any major Soviet leader had used such critical language about President Eisenhower since the summit conference in Geneva; in fact since the Bulgarian regime took over in February after Georgi K. Malenkov quit.)

Khrushchev repeated the statement he made in India after the recent H-bomb test; explosion in the Soviet Union — that the new Russian weapon "was equivalent to many million tons of ordinary explosives."

He said that although "we do not want to boast about our military and technical strength," he

Former Ohio Congressman Dies

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP)—Charles Franklin West, 60, former Ohio Congressman who became an administration leader under President Franklin D. Roosevelt, died here Tuesday night.

West was stricken in the lobby of a resort hotel and died an hour and a half later in a hospital. He had come here from nearby Tampa. He had flown to Tampa from Washington.

Death apparently was caused by a heart attack, but an autopsy was planned for today to determine the cause of death.

West represented the 17th Ohio District from 1930-34 and became an Undersecretary of the Interior under Roosevelt.

He was a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan and held a master's degree from Harvard University. He taught political science at Denison University, the College of Wooster and Harvard.

West had residence at Lebanon and Mount Vernon, Ohio.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Anna May West; two sisters, Mrs. John Worman of Mount Vernon and Mrs. James Rehr of Washington, D. C.; and a brother, Ben West of Mount Vernon.

Funeral services will be in Mount Vernon Saturday.

New Dust Storms Threaten Plains

WASHINGTON (AP)—The threat of new dust storms hangs over wide areas of the Great Plains, the Agriculture Department reported today.

Reports from the field as of Dec. 1 indicated, the department said, that dry soils and below normal rain and snowfall have left about 20 million acres of land in 10 Great Plains states in a condition to suffer wind damage.

The department said about 75 per cent of land in a condition to be damaged by storms is in Kansas, Texas and Colorado. The other states include New Mexico, Oklahoma, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wyoming.

Village Handles Record Mail

Columbiana Postoffice Reports On Holiday

Columbiana Postmaster S. E. Kidd reports a total of more than 300,000 pieces of mail handled by the Columbiana post office during the 1955 Christmas season, setting a new high record for volume. The volume last year set a record and the volume this year was four per cent above 1954.

In a statement today, Kidd said, "The Columbiana post office has just completed the greatest Christmas season in its history. During this period many of the regular employees worked as much as 12½ hours a day to handle the flood of mail received for distribution. In addition to the regular employees, three additional clerks and four additional carriers were employed."

"Beginning Dec. 5 and ending Dec. 21 a total of 198,626 pieces of letter-size mail was run through the canceling machine. An estimated 5,500 pieces of metered mail were also received for distribution, making a total of 204,126 pieces of letter-sized mail deposited in the office by local patrons for distribution."

"In addition to the outgoing mail, at least 100,000 pieces of mail were received from other post offices for distribution to local residents. This does not include money orders, parcel post, newspapers, magazines, circulars, registered and certified mail, postal savings and so forth handled along with the Christmas mail."

Market Owner Robbed 3 Times By Same Man

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Market operator Max Linger has been held up by the same man three times and the fellow now calls him by his first name.

"The gall of that guy," says Linger. "He entered my store again Wednesday, pulled the same .32 automatic pistol, and says: 'C'mon now, Max, give me the money. No monkey business now.'"

Linger handed over $53, the contents of the cash drawer, just as he did last March, and again in April.

Store Offers Young Elephant At Bargain Price Of $4,995

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Anybody want to buy an elephant? The John Wanamaker department store here has one on sale for $4,995.

"It's a bargain," the salesman said. "Hannibal originally cost $7,800 but we reduced the price in line with the store's two-day Christmas season sale."

At this point, Hannibal, whose 14 months and 550 pounds make her just a tot among pachyderms, lifted her trunk and trumpeted.

As the roar cascaded through the pet shop, a hush fell among the other animals and visiting children. But the salesman smiled confidently.

"Just think of who you could be if Hannibal was yours," he said. "You would be the only private owner of an elephant in the United States."

"I bet you would be surprised at all the things you can do with an elephant. Suppose your garden hose breaks. All you have to do is set out a dozen pails of water. Then call on Hannibal to spray your flowers."

"As for moving furniture or a snowbound car, just have Hannibal put her stout head against anything heavy and she will push it wherever you want it."

"Of course," the salesman admitted, "Hannibal does have a few personal habits that you have to cater to."

One of her habits turned out to be a hearty breakfast and dinner with the day's feeding consisting of one bushel of kale, one bushel of carrots, 10 to 12 quarts of oats and a bale of hay which she altered-nately uses as a bed and an in-between snack. At present grocery rates this would add up to $42 a week.

Hannibal also is concerned about her complexion and there is nothing she likes more than a nice oily skin. The other day it took four men two hours to give her a beauty treatment using two pounds of pure lanolin.

Vigorous Campaign Set Against Drunk Drivers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—U. C. Felty, state highway safety director, says he has asked Ohio police for a vigorous campaign against drunken drivers on the New Year's holiday weekend.

He said the state highway patrol will be out in full strength over the weekend seeking to keep traffic accidents low.

"I sincerely hope that the tragic toll of the Christmas holiday last weekend will have a sobering effect on the minds of motorists and pedestrians alike," Felty said.

FIGHTS DRUNKEN DRIVING

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Municipal Judge James A. Ravella is going to fatten up drunken driving bonds until Jan. 5 in an effort to quench an anticipated flareup of traffic accidents in the New Year's season.

Starting today, drivers charged with intoxicated motoring must post $1,000 cash bond or $2,000 property bond to gain release from jail before their hearings.

"If it does some good, I may make it permanent," the judge said.

Woman Held In Probe Of Fatal Accident

STATESVILLE, N. C. (AP)—Ethel V. Stacy, 26, Newport, Ky., is being held by authorities here for investigation in a Christmas eve traffic accident near Portsmouth, Ohio, which killed two men.

At Portsmouth, state highway patrolmen said the woman will be brought to Ohio for questioning in the U. S. 52 accident at Franklin Furnace.

Killed in the accident were Levi Coleman, 18, Columbus, Ohio, and Pikeville, Ky., and Jack McQueer, 29, Willard, Ohio.

Patrolmen said a woman driver pulled onto the highway into the path of the Coleman auto. The latter vehicle careened off the woman's car and collided head-on with the McQueer auto. The woman disappeared from the scene.

Statesville authorities said the car in which the Stacy woman was riding when arrested was reported stolen from Newport the same day the fatal accident occurred.

Stars and Stripes Raised Again At Little America

LITTLE AMERICA (AP)—The Stars and Stripes were raised again at Little America Wednesday.

The site of the first two camps built in the antarctic by Rear Adm. Richard Byrd was desolate.

The buildings of the first camp built in 1928 are covered by an estimated 60 feet of snow and ice. The second camp is about 40 feet below us.

All we found on the surface at 3 a.m. were the tops of towers and poles.

The experts aboard the icebreaker USS Glacier haven't decided yet where to build the permanent main base of the current United States antarctic expedition. The base will be used during the next three years by International Geophysical Year scientists.

The experts are seeking a site that would be unlikely to break off and float to sea. The right spot would also be free of crevasses and practical for loading cargo for ships from the bay ice up to the ice shelf.

The specific area known as Little America near the Bay of Whales may not be chosen again but no one here will ever forget the macabre scene.

Sticking up from the wind swept snow are the tops of two steel radio towers built at first Little America. The towers were originally 70 feet high. Today only about eight feet of their peaks are showing.

Also protruding from the snow like fingers frozen in death are the tops of five wooden poles which were used for radio wires at the second Little America between 1933 and 1965.

The second settlement was built directly over the first.

Political Facts Of Life

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Warren And Stevenson Carry Heavy Handicaps

There are certain "facts of life" in American politics which blind partisans sometimes try to wish out of existence, but those same facts nevertheless persist.

Lawrence

Thus, when there began to be mention of Chief Justice Warren as a possible presidential nominee as the news of Ike's illness first began to be discussed in terms of the 1956 election, most veterans in American politics immediately dismissed the idea on two counts. First, they regarded as absolute the unequivocal statement by Warren in April 1955 that he would not be a candidate "under any circumstances or conditions." Second, they realized he couldn't carry any of the South, and perhaps none of the "border" states either, because of his personal influence in the making of the Supreme Court decision on segregation.

To the first point, the naive answer was made by the "left wing" group promoting the candidacy of Warren that, of course, if President Eisenhower asked him to run, it would relieve the Chief Justice of any embarrassment about going back on his word — as if a pledge to keep the court out of politics can be broken so readily. On the second point there was a noticeable silence.

NOW AT LAST some of the same supporters who have been booming Warren right along are conceding it would be very bad if the Supreme Court were dragged into politics — particularly bad since the Chief Justice was the prime mover in the decision against segregation. For this issue would naturally then become prominent in the campaign, which, it is now said, would be most unfortunate.

But the same truth — the danger of putting the Supreme Court into politics — was well known the moment the name of Warren was mentioned in the first instance.

As an emotional issue, few things compare in intensity with the segregation question in the South. It has its repercussions in certain sections of the North and especially in the border states like Virginia, Maryland, Kentucky, Oklahoma, Missouri and Tennessee.

IT IS QUESTIONABLE whether, because of his weakness in the South, Adlai Stevenson, if nominated, can be elected. Stevenson stands in the South as the symbol of the Truman attitude on "civil rights."

An End To Everything

By TRUMAN TWILL

When the lady of our house had run out of places for Christmas tree ornaments this year, she resolved to add no more baubles to the household supply until it had been whittled down by wear and tear.

The resolution will not be kept. She will buy more ornaments next year, as she always has before — and the supply will keep on growing.

The tragedy lies not in the oversupply, but in the practice of keeping it in dead storage 51 weeks a year.

Something could be done about that — could be but won't be.

There could be another ceremony added to all the ceremonies that make Christmas precious.

When the time comes to trim the Christmas tree, the baubles could be removed with the same tenderness bestowed on each bright trinket when it was put in place the night before Christmas.

Each one could carry with it a wish for happiness as it was put back into its compartment for safe-keeping.

And each compartment could be numbered so in the days, weeks and months after Christmas the baubles could be taken out one at a time and looked at again — to refresh all the wishes for happiness that they symbolized.

There might even be a sprig of mistletoe saved to hang in an archway next summer. Or a bright red bow to hang on a door some gray day in March.

A packet of unused Christmas cards could be broken open and broadcast when the August dog days came again and the world needed a reminder of good will.

And speaking of good will, it would not be an offense against the proprieties to store up some good will for Groundhog Day.

A little left-over tinsel would not be amiss in the muck and mire of the April-shower season.

What would be wrong with a Christmas fruit cake in May?

Or a box of Christmas cookies next October.

A child's eyes can be as bright in July as they are on Dec. 25, if someone remembers that the world, to children, is full of potential surges.

A lonely heart can be made to beat faster in the melancholy days

It was the Stevenson group which antagonized Southern leaders by making the fight on the so-called "loyalty test" in the Democratic National Convention of 1952.

It is often argued — rather superficially, to be sure — that it was mainly the "popularity" of Eisenhower which enabled them to win the South. It wasn't Ike's "popularity" however, which caused Sen. Byrd of Virginia to decline in 1952 to announce what candidate he would support at the same time to say flatly he wouldn't support the party nominee, Adlai Stevenson.

It wasn't Ike's "popularity" which caused Gov. Shivers of Texas to bolt Stevenson in 1952. Even today Shivers is against Stevenson at a time when it is not known whether Ike will run on the Republican ticket.

NOR HAS IKE'S "popularity" anything to do with the anti-Stevenson sentiment which has given birth to a boom for Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas — who, like Ike, has a heart ailment. It is generally regarded as a device to hold together the South's delegations behind a man who thinks as the South does on most questions.

It will be recalled that on the issue of the tidelands oil, the Democrats in the North, led by Stevenson, refused to recognize the position taken by the Democratic leaders in Texas and Louisiana.

It will be recalled also that Candidate Eisenhower gave a better answer from the Texas viewpoint than did Stevenson on the question of protecting states' rights on the problem of tidelands oil. Actually, on becoming President, Eisenhower signed a bill safeguarding the tidelands oil rights of the southern states while leading Democrats in the North continued to cry "giveaway."

ALTHOUGH SEGREGATION is a live issue in the South and, like many another emotional question, will not soon subside politically, the South is much more anti-radical today on questions of taxation and economic issues generally than it has ever been. It will vote as many northern Republicans do on these questions.

It will not vote solidly Democratic next time, because many voters will not want to vote against a party under which "prosperity" has flourished.

What the Republican party hasn't taken to heart as yet is that an organizing job has to be done in the South and that the folks who "liked Ike" worked with an enthusiasm which, underneath the surface, was based on a determination to repudiate "Trumanism" in every form. Stevenson and "Trumanism" still mean the same thing in the South.

Visas, Passports

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

If somebody like Paul Robeson cannot get a passport, or if an alien like the Red Dean of Canterbury cannot get a visa, a terrific fuss is made on the subject and it is even written:

Sokolsky

"The effect is not only to discourage persons in these countries from visiting the United States, but to discourage from visitations those very persons who may be best qualified to dispel the misconceptions and fantastic notions about the United States which have been inspired unconsciously by visiting service men and Hollywood and consciously by the Communists and their fellow-travelers."

For the fiscal year 1955, 689,674 immigrants and visitors received visas and 473,703 passports were issued during the first 10 months.

ONLY 401 PERSONS were refused passports for other than the fact that they did not fill out their applications completely and accurately. Of the 401, only 13 were refused passports because they are Communists and six because they are engaged in political activities which abroad would be harmful to the United States.

The largest number of rejections, 300, were over citizenship, that is, their American citizenship is in doubt or does not exist.

Non-quota visas, issued under the Refugee Relief Act, amounting to 52,072, show an increase up to December 9, 1955.

In all these matters, an element of reciprocity must be considered. For instance, visas have been extended from two to four years when there is reciprocity by the other country. There is no reason why the United States should offer benefits which other countries refuse for Americans.

IMMIGRATION to the United States has been on the constant increase since the end of World War II. In 1946, for instance, 337,388 immigrants of all kinds entered this country; for the fiscal year 1955, this figure has reached 689,674. Since World War II, from 1946 through 1955, 5,254,634 persons have entered the United States as visitors or immigrants. Of this number 1,994,828 were either quota or non-quota immigrants. The argument therefore that this country has set up a star-spangled curtain is untenable from the figures.

It is interesting to note that few of the quotas are filled. For instance, Austria, which has a quota of 1,405, only 731 immigrants.

Italy comes closest to filling its quota of 5,645 by sending 5,093 immigrants. However, Italy sent 7,323, non-quota immigrants, making a total for the fiscal year 1955 of 12,616 immigrants altogether.

SOVIET RUSSIA has a quota of 2,697 and sent 1,245 quota immigrants and 143 non-quota. It does not say how these immigrants actually got out of Russia.

Many reasons exist for not issuing passports, apart from those already stated: namely, mentally ill, likely to become public charges, habitual criminals, refugees from justice, etc.

Cleaning up the passports at the American end serves America citizens because since we are strict, such countries as Great Britain, France, Spain and an increasing number of other countries accept the American passport at face value and do not require a visa.

ABOUT 500,000 Americans travel abroad every year, this is a convenience for them. If Judge Luther Youngdahl's decision is to prevail, the Passport Office will do no investigating but will become merely an office of issue and the American passport will lose its value almost of a guarantee of fitness to enter another country.

At any rate, it is to be presumed that the reason that visas are waived is that other countries do not care who comes into them which is untenable.

There are the passport and visa facts and figures, formally issued by Scott McLeod of the State Department. It is from these figures that any arguments on the subject must arise rather than on emotional reactions to the miseries of the rest of the world.

OBVIOUSLY, IT IS impossible for the United States to absorb all who are weary and heavily laden. We could neither feed nor house them. How to restrict the flow to the United States is a debatable question. Some believe in greater restrictions; others in less restriction.

Some would temper rigidity of administration by a more merciful our civilization by the increased attitude. Others fear a dilution of admission of persons from other types of civilizations.

All these are arguable positions but the assumption that restrictions at present are stiff or inhumane cannot be established by figures.

Control Or Insurance

By RAYMOND MOLEY

Since high and destructive floods have marked the year 1955, first in New England and later in California, it may be assumed that Congress will be importuned to provide either a means of future prevention or control of such acts of nature, or a form of indemnity for those who suffer damage. In either case there will, as always, be great differences of opinion concerning method. In fact, either control of indemnification presents serious and hitherto unanswered questions.

After the floods in the Midwest in 1951 and 1952, President Truman not only flew over the areas affected but energetically recommended methods both of control and of indemnification.

Flood control measures run into two sources of lively controversy. In the first place, there is the issue whether large dams and levees downstream are as effective as smaller dams, reservoirs, and landgrading far up in the source areas. No one seems to have a final answer on this.

Perhaps the problem will ultimately be met by resorting to both methods.

Then there is the matter of local participation in paying for flood prevention. In the beginning, the building of flood control works was considered to be a matter of local and state concern.

The vast damage to Dayton and other Ohio cities and towns in 1913 was followed by highly effective state and local action. It was not until 1917 that the federal government assumed specific responsibility for flood control. Even then it was assumed that the areas affected would participate.

In the 1920's, especially after the great Mississippi flood of 1927, the federal share was increased to practically 100 per cent.

The Hoover commission this year offered strong reasons why state and local areas should again take up a substantial share of the load. This, however, was regarded as heresy by some Democrats in Congress, and a House subcommittee set out to hold hearings in some of the areas recently affected with what seemed to be a desire to discredit the Hoover recommendations. We shall probably hear from that subcommittee in the near future.

The financial problems confronting flood insurance seem to be insuperable. A committee appointed by the Insurance Executives Association reported in 1952 that practical problems surrounding such forms of property damage were too great to be met by any insurance as such.

The plain fact is that any so-called insurance plan would probably have to be an outright federal indemnity in indeterminate amounts.

Meanwhile, the economic considerations that lead to great damage remain.

It hardly needs demonstration that the high fertility of land close to water draws farmers into dangerous areas. Since rivers are channels of commerce, they will continue to attract commercial and industrial activities.

Some human beings have so much of a yearning for gain and so little concern for indeterminate dangers that they will continue to invite these invasions of nature's destructive power.

Unless Congress finds a way to amend the daring and shortsightedness of men, it will for a long time be concerned with inconclusive methods of relief.

Some folks are praying they won't get a wintertime cold while others already have one. A season of prayer and medication.

Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Motorists 5th Amendment

(A judge has held that the markers on an illegally parked auto don't prove guilt, and that, even if ownership is more definitely established, the owner can refuse to testify under the Fifth Amendment.)

Court—Officer, this man is charged with tearing up parking tickets by the gross and making a habit of law violation. Can you tie this habit to him personally?

Cop—The markers and registration show him to own the car perpetually parked illegally. Court—Did you hand the ticket to him in the parked car?

Cop—Since he was not in the car this was too difficult a trick, and I am a policeman not a magician.

Court—Are you aware that you cannot summon to court a piece of property or an inanimate object?

Cop—That's a new one.

Court—I got a million of 'em!

THE DEFENDANT takes the stand. Court—A car registered as belonging to you has been parked against the law in city streets for two years. Will you plead guilty, or join me in some hair splitting?

Owner—May I consult counsel? Court—Certainly, and I hope his auto isn't parked against a hydrant in front of this courthouse.

Lawyer—Yerronor this brushoff of forty-five parking tickets constitutes an un-American proceeding, a violation of the Bill of Rights and an assault on freedom. I propose to make a federal case of it.

Court—What is the defendant's plea?

Owner—I plead not guilty and stand on my constitutional rights to ignore no-parking signs, clog up city streets, multiply the traffic problem and thumb my nose at the police.

Court—This case is based on the flimsy evidence of duly filed and unmistakable correct registrations. Do you admit owning it or shall we wait?

OWNER—I REFUSE to discuss the matter further on the ground it might incriminate and degrade me.

Lawyer—It might also make him put his car in a garage or parking lot and start observing the laws. This would be a blow at personal freedom and undermine sacred rights.

Court—As I understand it, you take the position that, while you own the car, it could have been parked illegally for two years by Old Mother Hubbard, Snow White and the Dwarfs, or Alice's "slithy toves that gyred and gimble in the wags." Am I right?

Lawyer—That question is a foul blow at my client's constitutional prerogatives, even though you are right as rain. We claim Fifth Amendment to all further proceedings.

Judge's Chauffeur (suddenly entering) — Yerronor, you told me to park your car in the usual place reserved for it, but this defendant has parked his machine there.

Court (to defendant)—What have you to say to this outrage?

Client — FIFTH AMENDMENT! FIFTH AMENDMENT!

Eddie Rickenbacker, eligible to retire at 65 on $30,790 per year, has chosen to continue in as boss man and signed for another 10 years as Gen. Mgr. of Eastern Airlines. Eddie refuses to be grounded. Most men would think $30,790 a year pension seventh heaven but Eddie has a different idea of stratospheric flight. General Motors sold him its Eastern interest for 3 1/2 million dollars in 1938. The company now has assets of 137 million dollar.

Money To Make Money

Public interest in the Ford stock offering is greater than interest ever has been in financial transaction.

It is as though Americans with no previous knowledge of or interest in high finance suddenly had discovered one of the key secrets of their own fabulous economy.

In the case of the Ford stock offering, there is a peculiarity in the secret that is worth extra attention and interest.

This is not a case of selling stock to increase the Ford Co.'s capitalization. The effect of distributing 10,200,000 shares of a much-wanted stock that will command a high price—a maximum of $75 a share as designated in the registration statement filed with SEC—will not be felt in the Ford enterprise at all.

The block to be sold is owned outright by the Ford Foundation, which is independent of the Ford Co. Proceeds from the sale of the stock will be used by the Ford Foundation to purchase other securities, for the purpose of widening the scope of its holdings.

Since the proceeds will be in the neighborhood of three quarters of a billion dollars, it goes without saying that this vast amount of new money will have a tremendous impact on the securities market.

The impact will be intensified, moreover, by the fact it is going to be invested by some of the foremost investment experts in high finance — the investment committee of the Ford Foundation.

Their decisions will comprise one of history's most closely watched investments of money to make money—the use of wealth to bring about creation of wealth—the ultimate climax to the financial saga that began in 1905 when 12 men invested $28,000 in Henry Ford's idea that grew into an enterprise whose sales the first nine months of this year soared beyond four billion dollars.

Typical Optimist

Time Magazine's Man-of-The-Year choice for 1955 is Harlow Curtice, president of General Motors. He would be the first to understand that he was chosen as a symbol of business enterprise, rather than as an individual.

It was his role as president of the largest U.S. corporation to say and do what needed to be done in 1955 to set the pace of free enterprise in a critical period. General Motors takes its responsibilities as a prime economic factor seriously.

There had been politically-inspired talk of bad business following the slowdown in 1954. Curtice offset this with a confidence-inspiring announcement of a billion-dollar expansion program for General Motors.

The wallow in what he said was not what he thought as an individual. It was what he reflected as the president of a widely-owned enterprise responsive to popular opinion and the judgment of some of the best financial brains in the United States. Optimism became the business theme for 1955.

Curtice became the typical optimist whose refusal to knuckle under to pessimists and stand-patters has been the capsule history of U.S. enterprise. He reflected what must businessmen felt about the future of the United States—that Americans have only begun to realize what their fabulous productivity can do for them and the world if they will accept it for what it is.

Accident Weather

Last weekend's traffic toll—397 deaths—may be the all-time high for years to come.

It will not be until 1960 that Christmas will fall again on Sunday, with Dec. 26 as a Monday holiday and a Christmas weekend starting with a speeded-up movement of traffic on Friday afternoon.

It may be even longer than that before a three-day holiday will be accompanied by three successive days of "accident weather" like the three days and nights of clear skies and snow-free roads this year.

Statistics on traffic accidents show a strong relationship between weather and fatalities. Motorists are safest when the weather is bad—in the greatest danger when clear roads and high visibility invite them to take chances.

The moral is the importance of being aware of traffic danger. Even the utter fools know enough to be careful in a sleet storm. Heavy snow slows down reckless drivers. Extreme weather conditions slow down not only the chance-takers but keep many drivers off the roads.

A high auto-accident toll in 1955 was predictable from the weather forecast as well as from the greatest number of auto registrations in history. Earlier in the month, a normal December weekend had produced a fatality total of 364.

Most Democratic Leaders See Stevenson As Party's Choice

WASHINGTON (AP) — An overwhelming majority of Democratic leaders believe Adlai Stevenson is now the best bet to win their party's presidential nomination again in 1956.

The Associated Press today told the results of a poll of 126 Democratic governors, state chairmen and members of the party's national committee.

The Democrats were asked: "Whom do you consider the leading candidate, in your state, for the presidential nomination?"

Their replies were broken down this way:

Stevenson 76
Kefauver 5
Lausche 3
Harriman 3
Others, or no comment 39
The poll isn't as one-sided as it might seem.

Some who voted for Stevenson stressed that his margin is so slight it may vanish before the convention is held in August.

At least five politicians couldn't make up their minds, and decided the race was a tossup between Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

Gov. Averill Harriman of New York, an "inactive" candidate so far, got but three votes. One of these was from Carmine G. DeSapio, who, as a national committeeman and chief of Tammany Hall, should have much to say about how New York's 96 votes are cast in the convention.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio, running both as a favorite son and for the U.S. Senate, picked up a home vote, plus one from Massachusetts and one from Texas.

Others mentioned as presidential possibilities:

Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia, Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri,

Church Youths Told Old Ideas 'Bankrupt'

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — The 3,500 delegates attending the Ecumenical Student Conference on the Christian World Mission have been told that "old political ideas are going bankrupt."

Dr. C. J. Eliezer of the University of Ceylon told the conference last night that people who have lived for centuries "in the political backwaters of the world are experiencing a quickening of the pulse of life."

They are now seeking their "rightful place in the community of nations," he added.

The Rev. Jerald C. Brauer of the University of Chicago related how the church "is responsible for encouraging research for equality and justice."

Conference delegates, mostly college students, represent more than 80 nations and 50 Christian denominations. They are studying their role in furthering the church's work throughout the world.

The six-day meeting, held every four years, is sponsored by the Student Volunteer Movement (a branch of the National Council of Churches), the World Student Christian Movement and the United Student Christian Council. The sessions at Ohio University will end Sunday.

HUNTER IS KILLED

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio (AP) — The first hunting fatality of the rabbit season in this area was recorded yesterday with the death of David Lee Todd, 19, as the result of gunshot wounds received while hunting.

Todd was killed when the gun of a companion was discharged as the two were crawling through a wire fence near Byesville.

Union Approves Strike Against Dayton Transit

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Union members voted last night to strike against City Transit Co. here "whenever it's deemed necessary" after rejecting a company wage offer.

City Transit provides 90 per cent of the bus service in Dayton and serves about 120,000 people daily.

Howard E. Steele, president of Local 1385, Amalgamated Assn. of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees of America, said union members voted 187-12 to turn down the company wage offer.

Steele said the union has asked the Federal Conciliation Service at Cleveland to enter the dispute. The contract with the local expires midnight Saturday.

The dispute involves 250 bus operators and 75 maintenance men.

Steele said the union is asking, in addition to fringe benefits, a 40-hour week for bus operators, who now work 48, and a 35-cent hourly across the board pay hike.

The company, he said, has offered 3 cents hourly, effective this Sunday, and an additional 5-cent increase if the city commission grants a satisfactory fare increase. The commission has said that all four bus companies serving Dayton must consolidate before it considers any fair increase.

Dayton's four bus companies now get a straight 10-cent fare. They are asking for 15 cents.

Steele said the union already has given 60 days notice to terminate the City Transit contract. Therefore a strike could be called Sunday. Negotiations have been underway a month.

A strike by City Transit workers would not affect the three remaining bus lines which principally serve Dayton suburbs.

W. W. Owen, executive vice president of City Transit, said, "All we know is that we are doing our best to work out a difficult situation."

PILOT CRASH LANDS

MEDINA, Ohio (AP) — Student pilot Robert Faulk, 18, got lost yesterday on a solo flight from Butler, Pa., to Wooster, Ohio, and crashed as he tried an emergency landing in a field north of nearby Spencer. The state highway patrol said. Faulk was uninjured. His plane, landing with the wind, nosed over when it hit the rough field.

Jr. High School Club Program Will Begin After Yule Vacation

The Junior High School club program will begin soon after Christmas vacation. Announcement was made in the Christmas issue of the Quakerette.

The Quakerette staff is comprised of: News editor, Pete Wald; feature editor, Judy Starbuck; business managers, Ricky Eckstein,

Clubs will meet during the seventh period on Fridays. The seventh and eighth grade Boys and Girls Clubs will meet on alternate weeks from the chosen clubs of the same grades.

Chosen club enrollment sheets have been given to the students who have been asked to list their first, second and third choices of the following clubs:

Miss Ruth Emery and Mrs. Jane Votaw will have the seventh and eighth grade Book Clubs, respectively. Members will read and discuss books.

An opportunity to practice dancing will be given in the Dance Clubs directed by Mrs. Edith Bowles and Mrs. Leonard Hoppes.

Subjects of interest will be offered to boys and girls in the Debate Club sponsored by Lowell Goard.

Miss Elizabeth Ward, Mrs. Victoria Hum and Miss Geraldine Flooding will head the Dramatic Club. Members will take part in short skits.

In the Games for Boys Club, members will play all types of indoor and outdoor games and will have a ping pong tournament. James Riley will be in charge.

Mrs. Votaw will direct the seventh graders and Mrs. Ford Dilworth the eighth graders in the Games for Girls Clubs. They will play group games such as cards, checkers and ping pong.

A Glee Club for non-chorus pupils will be directed by Mrs. Walter Hofmeister and Herbert Kelley.

Miss Emery will teach crafts at the Hobby Club for eighth grade girls.

Mrs. William Baker and Mrs. Bess Cline will be in charge of the Nature Club. Members will discuss animals, birds, nature and will take hikes.

Roger Fitzsimmons will sponsor a Sports Club where sports in general, games and athletics will be discussed. The group also will participate in sports.

The Parliamentary Club is for those who are interested in speaking before groups and presiding at meetings. This club will meet on Tuesdays with Mrs. Lulu McCarthy.

Miss Lois Roller will sponsor the seventh grade Girls Club and Mrs. Lee Pelley the eighth grade Girls Club. Ernest Sherman will have charge of the Boys Clubs of both classes.

The seventh grade All-Star Cheerleaders have been chosen by Mrs. Hoppes. The squad is comprised of Dotty Meier, captain; Donna Saftred, co-captain; Lorraine Pardee, Janice Frank, Beverly Costa, Diane Rosenberry, Dawn Close and Polly Schmid. Lela Karns and Donna Kilmer will be substitutes.

Eighth grade cheerleaders are: Sally Fester, captain; Judy Danner, co-captain; Karen Smith, Tink Porter, Sandy Stevens, Maggi Null, Mickey Cope and Beverly Erath.

New books to borrow and to buy are on the book shelves in the library, and hobbies are on display in the show case in the hall. There are models of planes, bikes and ships. The model of the White House and all the Presidents was made by Bob Potter. There also is a beautiful piece of embroidery made by Don Wukotich.

Women Changed Appearance In '55

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Gradually but surely, women assumed a new shape in 1955.

Bustlines were higher, hips slimmer, skirts tighter, hats bigger. The sheath silhouette, which had been emerging for several seasons arrived definitely to change the average look of women throughout the country. As is usual with most changes in fashion, it was worn first by the well-dressed and well-heeled few, gradually percolated to the multitudes. This year women looked like lampshades only after 5 p.m. or if they were under 18.

Top favorite outfit of the year was the costume consisting of the sheath dress and jacket, preferably a brief curved bolero. Waistlines were less nipped, dresses were like tubes and the desired effect was to look like a column. Belts could be anywhere from bust to hips but they did not change the line of the silhouette, which closely followed the body line, with or without belts.

As dresses and suits grew narrower, hats grew bigger, the universal favorite of the winter being the fuzzy white hat of fur or fabric, somewhat dome-shaped, worn level on the head.

Accessories became more important with the slimming of the silhouette — handbags were bigger, jewelry more bulky. Women went in for big button earrings, multiple bold bracelets, choker necklaces rather than the ropes that were fashionable last year.

This was the year of the stretch stocking, which also had been in the process of development for several years, but arrived in full force in 1955. This was the doll-size stocking of crimped nylon yarn, which stretched to fit and often was sold with a long-wear guarantee.

New also in 1955 was the easily washable glove in suede or kid and in all colors, which could be tossed in the washing machine, came out looking like new.

Small contoured furs became more popular than large stoles, with some fluffy furs such as fox challenging the supremacy of mink.

Mrs. Woolf Hostess To Brownies, Mothers

Santa Claus was a guest when the Brownies of Troop 18 and their mothers gathered for a party in the home of Mrs. William Woolf of 1151 Liberty St. Wednesday, Dec. 21, celebrating Christmas and the troop's birthday.

Mrs. Lois Roth, assistant leader, accompanied the group on the piano during Christmas carol singing. Mrs. Roth also directed the games session.

One year pins and world association pins were presented by Mrs. Lucy Ware to the girls.

The table was laid in Christmas appointments and the luncheon was served by the mothers. A candle marked each place.

Mrs. Thelma Goddard is chairman of the troop committee.

Feted On Birthday

Miss Dolores Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Morris of Jennings Ave., was honored at a party in celebration of her ninth birthday Monday. Dolores' mother and an aunt, Mrs. Edward Westphal planned the affair, using red and green in the color scheme at the refreshment table.

The children at the party came from Salem, Greenford and Warren. Gifts were presented to the honoree, and prizes in the bingo games were won by Miss Charlotte Hawkins of Warren and Miss Elaine Miles of Salem. A color game was also enjoyed.

Pfc. Byron E. Provins of Campbell, Ky., was a guest Christmas day at the home of Miss Shirley Umstead of Empire. Pfc. Provins is now at home on a 10-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Umstead of RD 1, Salem.

A family dinner Monday marked the 55th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Todd of 650 Washington Ave. and the 74th birthday anniversary of Mr. Todd.

The Todds were married Dec. 25, 1900 in Koeen, Ind. and have been Salem residents for nine years.

Among the guests present were their children and families, Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Peterson of Lisbon, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Todd of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wallace of Teegarden Road, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Todd of Albany Road; 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Jack Renkenberger and Miss Elizabeth Butcher were also guests. Decorated cakes were featured when dinner was served.

The couple were presented gifts in honor of the occasion.

Miss Barbara Cope To Wed Dale Burt

Custom of open church will be observed Sunday when Miss Barbara Cope and Dale Burt are united in marriage at the Grace Lutheran Church in East Palestine.

Rev. Carl Duwe will officiate at the 7:30 p.m. ceremony which will be preceded by a half-hour of nuptial music.

Miss Cope is the daughter of Mrs. Freda Fries of New Waterford and Albert Cope, Lisbon and Mr. Burt is the son of Mrs. Edith Burt of East Fairfield and the late Sylvester Burt.

Capsule Forecast

Designers predict 1956 fashion as follows:

Claire McCardell: "The high waistline may really go over."

Adele Simpson: "The whole wardrobe will be colorful—but all one color."

Ben Zuckerman: "The suit will look like a suit—not like a dress."

Lilly Dache: "Women will look like flowers."

Helen Lee: "Children will get a large share of the clothing dollar."

Mollie Parnis: "Women will still prefer full skirts after 5."

Betty Jarvis Wed To Anthony Viola

Miss Betty Jarvis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith of Salineville and Anthony Viola of W. Pershing St. exchanged their marriage vows Saturday at 1:15 p.m. in the parsonage of the New Waterford Methodist Church. Rev. C. E. Richardson, pastor of the church, officiated.

Attending the couple were Mrs. James Hammond, matron of honor, and William Wagner, best man.

The bride and matron of honor were dressed identically in black and white street dresses. The bride complemented her attire with a lavender orchid, and Mrs. Hammond wore a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Ruth McLaughlin, who witnessed the ceremony, was dressed in gray and wore a pink and white carnation corsage.

Following the nuptials, the five persons in the wedding party enjoyed a dinner at Petrucci's. The couple presented their attendants with gifts.

The newlyweds, who spent the weekend with the bride's parents, will reside here on E. 3rd St.

Mrs. Viola is employed by the Metzger Hotel and her husband by the Eljer Co.

Dawes, Sanders Resign Lisbon Village Offices

LISBON — Council accepted the resignations of one of its members and its civil defense director at a meeting Wednesday night.

Resigning were Donald Dawes, 1955 council president, and Gerald Sanders, civil defense director. Their resignations will become effective Saturday.

Dawes, a seed salesman, has purchased a motel outside the village on Route 30 west, and expects to move there Friday with his family from his home at 330 Cherry St.

Dawes has been on council five and a half years.

Sanders, civil defense director for two years, resigned to accept a village council post to which he was elected in November.

Dawes announced his resignation after he was sworn in by Mayor Warren. Also sworn in were two re-elected councilmen, Ira Neville and Emmett Wolfe, a new member of council, Sanders, and the re-elected clerk, Ray Hempstead, and the new Board of Public Affairs, Deane Beck, Paul Kuhns, and Russell Shaw.

Absent from the meeting were Leland Biggins, a new council member; Fred Reese, re-elected last November; and Mrs. Jack Johnson, elected village treasurer, after being appointed last spring to fill the unexpired term of the late Mrs. Helen Blackburn.

Biggins and Sanders will replace Charles Lederle and Carl Morris who declined to run. Lederle has served in council eight years and Morris for two years.

Reports on Swim Pool
Cecil Rauch, chairman of the swimming pool committee, gave a report on the new Sadie Van Fossan pool completed last fall.

Repeating his request that the pool be opened on Memorial Day in 1956, Rauch told council that the contractor, Eastern Maintenance Co. of Pittsburgh, has asked for three weeks notice to prepare for the opening of the pool.

He said the openings in the buildings on the pool site have been closed with insulation board to protect the inside from winter weather. Rauch told council members that he "would like to have some help on seeding of the ground on the outside of the pool."

Rauch said that "after the holidays are over, the committee will get together to set up the rates and the rules and regulations for the pool." He cited the need for a caretaker, "who will be responsible for the pool and the equipment," and a qualified lifeguard.

The pool chairman said that "pledges haven't been coming in as good as they might have." A total of $1,985 has been pledged, he said, but $1,400 is still to come in. The pledges are needed to pay off the $287.31 balance, he said.

Councilmen discussed installation of a plaque at the pool in memory of the late Miss Sadie Van Fossan, who left $16,000 in her will as a "starting fund" for the pool.

Council discussed the three percent amusement tax but did not take a vote as to whether it should be repealed. Robert Harrold, manager of the Manor Theatre, was present at the meeting.

Councilmen discussed the sewer assessment charges for the North Park St. addition and approved the resolution accepting the 1956 budget as set up by the county auditor.

Council's next meeting will be Monday, Jan. 9, at 7:30 p.m.

public how we felt about it. . . . We hold no grudge against the quint. The stories out of Montreal support what we said in the first place—that the girls are being influenced by outsiders."

The girls' spokesman insisted they "love their family, but they do want a life of their own."

"They are enjoying a normal social life," he continued. "They have friends of both sexes. They like to dance and listen to music and go to shows. They like to read too, and they get a big kick out of cooking."

The girls' father had complained that they had not sent the family Christmas greetings, but the spokesman said they bought presents weeks ago to give their parents and eight brothers and sisters on New Year's — French Canada's traditional time for exchanging gifts. He added:

"They had no Christmas gifts from their parents. Mr. and Mrs. Dionne evidently also follow the French tradition of presents at New Year's."

Brokaw Announces For Prosecutor

LISBON — G. William Brokaw announced today that he will be a candidate for county prosecuting attorney at the Republican primary election May 8.

Brokaw is 37 and has been a life-time resident of East Liverpool. He graduated from Marietta College in 1941 and the University of Cincinnati College of Law in 1948. He has been practicing law in East Liverpool since the summer of 1948 and has been the assistant prosecuting attorney since January of 1949.

A veteran of World War II, Brokaw entered the Army in November, 1941 and was discharged in the spring of 1946 as a major.

He is the son of Municipal Judge and Mrs. G. L. Brokaw. He is married to the former Helen M. Mathews and resides with his wife and three children at 1617 Smithfield St. in East Liverpool.

Work Stoppages Up 21% Over Last Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Labor Department estimated today that 4,200 strikes caused 28 million man-days of idleness in 1955.

The number of work stoppages was 21 per cent greater than the 3,468 reported in 1954. Last time in 1955 was nearly 24 per cent more than last year.

The review noted that while strike idleness this year exceeded 1954, it was the third best year since the end of World War II. The number of strikes in 1955 was about 20 per cent less than the postwar peak of 5,117 stoppages recorded in 1952.

Approximately 24 million workers were involved in the 1955 stoppages, nearly 80 per cent more than the 1,530,000 in 1954. The department said a substantial part of the increase resulted from one or two-day work stoppages in the steel and automobile industries at the time of contract negotiations.

Homes Of Westinghouse Workers Are Damaged
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Bottles of oil were thrown through windows of homes of two Westinghouse workers, the sheriff's office reported today.

The bottles broke and splattered walls, carpeting and furniture at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Stange and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wallace. And in both cases, deputies said, headlights and windows of cars parked in front of the homes were smashed.

Both Stange and Wallace had returned to work since the strike began 74 days ago. A company spokesman said 1,812 employees worked yesterday's three shifts.

Officials of the Columbus local of International Union of Electrical Workers said they had no idea who might have tossed the bottles of oil through the windows. Company officials said Westinghouse will pay for damages.

Khrushchev

wanted to remind the West about the test explosion.

Can Be Increased
"The power of this weapon was equivalent to many million tons of ordinary explosives and it can be considerably increased," he added.

"People who are trying to increase tension should remember the results of this test."

(The telephone line over which part of this story was dictated was broken by the Soviet censor for five minutes after mention was made of Khrushchev's statement about the H-bomb.)

Khrushchev followed Premier Nikolai Bulganin to the rostrum. Both speeches bristled with attacks on "Western colonialism."

On the Middle East Khrushchev put forth these contentions:
1. The Baghdad Pact violated the Geneva spirit and was signed almost before the ink on the Geneva agreement was dry. Turkey is "mistakenly linking her fate with the aggressive Baghdad Pact."

2. The Soviet Union sympathizes with the desire of Arab nations to win and maintain independence. Jordan is the latest example of Western efforts to involve Arabs "in an aggressive military bloc."

3. "From the first day of its existence, the state of Israel has been taking a hostile, threatening position toward its neighbors. Imperialists are behind Israel, trying to exploit it against the Arabs for their own benefit."

Cites Divided Germany
Turning to Germany, Khrushchev said the actual existence of two German states must be taken into account if the West sincerely wants European security.

The Western powers' "position is that the German democratic republic should join West Germany and that all its social achievements should be liquidated," he said. He argued that this and the inclusion of a rearmaged Germany with the West "would not only fail to guarantee peace and security in Europe but would increase the danger of a new war."

He said that while Western policy now prevents German reunification, it does not mean "there is no possibility of guaranteeing European security." He said the Soviet Union sees no other solution than a system of general European security including the United States.

"No one will force us to strengthen by our own hand a bloc (NATO) which is directed against the Soviet Union and other peace-loving countries," he added.

Khrushchev spoke of Africa as "divided among European and non-European nations."

"It is held down by chains which are choking the people of Africa, who are rising in the fight against colonialism," he declared. "We support these fighters for independence, and wish them success."

Returned Naval Base
Khrushchev cited Russia's return of the Porkkala naval base to Finland, the Austrian independence treaty and the reduction of Soviet armed forces by 640,000 men as Soviet contributions to reducing international tension during 1955.

"Who is undermining the Geneva spirit and who is supporting it?" he asked. "We do not see what the United States is doing to lessen international tension. "Some Western politicians have a strange idea of the Geneva spirit," he said. "They want us to disarm our army and also to disarm morally and politically. Such conditions are unacceptable to us. The most eager proponents of such unrealistic policy are in the United States, particularly Secretary of State Dulles, who plays a leading role in advocating massive retaliation and other absurdities."

THAT SUNSHINE SURE FEELS GOOD — President Eisenhower duffs his hat to the crowd gathered to greet him at Key West, Fla., as he arrives for a two-week work-and-play stay in the sun. Also greeting the President was a balmy, 73-degree temperature—quite a contrast to the bone-chilling 18 degrees which prevailed when the Presidential plane, Columbine, left Washington.

"They are even still using such out-of-date language of the policy of the position-of-strength as 'forcing the Reds to withdraw.'"

He said these people included President Eisenhower, "who spoke a great deal at Geneva of the need to reduce international tension."

He said the Christmas message authors "are not concerned with the saving of souls but with the welfare of their purses." And he declared that none of the expelled capitalists and landowners would be allowed back in their former homelands, just as Russian capitalists were not allowed to return after the revolution.

Sees Socialist Advance
He told the delegates the future belongs to Leninist teachings, that the socialist camp can never be destroyed, and "We shall sweep out of our way everything that blocks the construction of Communism."

He reaffirmed his conviction that in peaceful competition the "superior" socialist system would eventually win over any other. He said history would make this decision, but "in our struggle for communism, we will never start an aggressive war."

The party boss accused the United States of trying to "re-establish capitalism" in the countries of the Soviet bloc.

"But it is impossible to turn back history," he declared. Khrushchev said the American Christmas messages, which generally stated the authors were praying for the liberation of the East European countries, were "incompatible with the Geneva spirit."

"It leads to the incitement of passions," he declared, adding that "I speak about President Eisenhower in such a manner unwillingly, because I respect him so much."

Khrushchev declared that agreement on disarmament has been "hindered by a change in the position of the United States."

He charged that the United States was not discussing a reduction of armaments but was "putting on the first level only the proposal of President Eisenhower at the Geneva conference about the exchange of aerial photographs."

"How does it differ from military intelligence?" he asked. "It differs in no way at all."

Bulganin assailed such Western-sponsored defense alliances for Asia as SEATO and the Baghdad

Pact as "colonialism in a new form with aggressive aims."

The premier also hailed 1955 as a "definite turning point in the relaxation of world tensions"—much of this due to Soviet efforts—and called anew for outlawing of atomic weapons "including rocket weapons which have been recently developed into weapons of intercontinental power."

Khrushchev also singled out New York Gov. Averell Harriman, a wartime ambassador to the Soviet Union who sent one of the Christmas messages. He accused Harriman of wanting not only to return former capitalists to the Communist area but also of wanting to return himself to Hungary. "where he had properties before the war."

Gordon, Bunn's, Lisbon Win City Cage Contests

Gordon Sports rolled over Superior Wallpaper 58-45 and Bunn's Shoe Store had a field day as they humbled Logue Monument 78-14 in Class B basketball action in the Memorial Building last night, while Lisbon outscored a Quaker Turkey Farm team 25-10 in the lone girl's tilt of the night.

Gordon Sports went out in front 11-6 in the first quarter of their game with Superior Wallpaper and were never headed as they registered second and third period leads of 27-13 and 40-20 respectively.

A 25 point outburst by Superior in the last frame to 18 markers for Gordon's brought the final score much closer but the previous lead built up by the winners was just too much for the losers to erase.

Gale Rabbi and Jim Edgerton of Superior were high scorers with 16 and 12 points respectively. Brown Brown paced the winner's cause.

Power, Punting Key To Pitt Bowl Plans

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Power and punting are the key weapons in Pittsburgh's plans to upset Georgia Tech in the Sugar Bowl Monday.

"We've banked on them all season and they haven't let us down," Pitt Coach John Michelosen said today. "We've gotten most of our yardage on power plays through the line."

"Our line isn't as fast and tall as Tech's," he said, "but we're bigger and we're hoping we can get the holes we need for our backs."

If Pitt's ground attack falters, Michelosen has a capable passer. "We've passed only in spots this season," he said, "but we can throw. Corny (quarterback Corny Salvaterra) can throw either long or spot stuff."

Regular fullback Tom Jenkins' knee showed some improvement Wednesday, but it was still doubtful whether he would play. He was on crutches.

If Jenkins is unavailable, Pitt will start Bob Grier, the first Negro to appear in the Sugar Bowl.

Brigham Young Wins Tourney

Oklahoma City Upsets Favored Aggies 48-47

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press

When a sophomore can sink 43 points in fast college competition, what is he going to do when he becomes a senior?

Southwest Conference coaches must have nightmares when they think of Rice's 6-10 Temple Tucker, a sophomore center. He scored 43 points to set a tournament record Wednesday night while his mates were running up a 110-81 victory over Texas A&M in a first-round game of the Southwest Conference event.

That was the highest score of the night in some 25 tournaments. In other Southwest tourney games, visiting California polished off Baylor 72-59; Texas turned back Texas Christian 66-60; and Southern Methodist whipped Arkansas 67-62.

Only one major tournament was decided. That was the Motor City in Detroit, in which Brigham Young, deprived of its three tallest players at the start of the second half through fouls, defeated Detroit 99-77 in the final.

The big shock of the night took place in Oklahoma City, where Oklahoma City University took the measure of the Oklahoma Aggies 48-47 to enter tonight's finals against Tulsa, which upset top-seeded Seattle 68-66.

In New York, the mighty San Francisco Dons ran their two-year winning streak to 35 games by outclassing Holy Cross 67-51 in the semifinals of the Holiday Festival at Madison Square Garden. UCLA, the last team to beat the Dons, halted defending champion Duquesne 72-57 in the other semifinal. The winners will meet Friday.

Bill Russell, the Dons' heralded center, scored 24 points in leading his team to its eighth victory of the year.

The Richmond Invitational also is turning into a red-hot battle, and tonight's semifinal between Cincinnati and Seton Hall shapes up as a corker. Cincinnati crushed Virginia 93-69 and undefeated Seton Hall upended Virginia 64-60.

The other semifinal will pit William and Mary, which set a tournament record by vanquishing Rhode Island 100-96, against Richmond, 96-84 victor over Army.

The semifinals of the Big Seven Tournament in Kansas City also are slated for tonight, sending Colorado against Iowa State and Kansas against Missouri. Last night, the Jayhawks beat Cornell 75-58 and the Tigers conquering Nebraska 71-66.

In Louisville, the finals of the Kentucky Invitation are scheduled for tonight, pitting top-seeded Western Kentucky against Murray State. The Hilltoppers wiped out a 12-point deficit to humble Louisville 86-77, while Murray gained its berth in the finals with a 98-87 victory over Eastern Kentucky.

Clemson, 100-95 victor over Louisiana State, and South Carolina, which beat Georgia 85-68, meet for the Gator Bowl title at Jacksonville tonight.

In the Miami Orange Bowl Tournament, West Virginia beat Florida State 78-69 and Columbia beat Santa Clara 76-73.

Other results included: Dayton (No. 2 in The Associated Press poll and unbeaten) 86, Washington and Lee 54, Ohio State (Robin Freeman, 27) 83, DePaul 72, Washington 54, Wisconsin 53.

Both Spartans, UCLA Sound Optimistic For Bowl Game

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—There hasn't been a pessimistic note from either the Michigan State or UCLA camp this week as the Rose Bowl contestants approach peak fitness for their Jan. 2 football game.

Both coaches, Duffy Daugherty of the Spartans and Red Sanders of the Bruins, are well satisfied with the progress their squads have made since practice started.

Daugherty said today there's a little sharpening to be done, physically, "but we know we won't have trouble getting them worked up emotionally by Jan. 2." He has workouts scheduled today, Friday and Saturday, with a 30-minute limbering up period Sunday.

Daugherty said he would start Leo Haidys, a 210 pound senior, in place of Pat Burke at right tackle. Haidys is eight pounds heavier than Burke, a sophomore.

Sanders was informed by Dr. Walter Scott that star passer Ronnie Knox, who suffered a broken ankle bone Nov. 12, was available for service. X-rays showed the break has healed properly.

But Sanders isn't planning to start Knox, regardless. He said: "Just because the doctors say he's available doesn't mean he'll play. If he doesn't move around well he won't be playing much."

The coaches were paying their rival players all sorts of compliments Wednesday. Daugherty paid high tribute to the Bruin blockers. Sanders said Spartan quarterback Earl Morrall's passing and running and the power cruising of Walt Kowalczyk impressed him greatly.

Kowalczyk, he said, is the "hardest running back I ever saw; why he even hurts you with his stiff arm."

Daugherty was guest at a luncheon of the UCLA alumni Wednesday.

Freeman Paces Buckeye Win; Dayton Rolls

By HAL PARIS
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—"He's just terrific, that's all."

That was DePaul Coach Ray Meyer's capsule description of All-American Robin Freeman after Ohio State toppled the Demons from Chicago last night, 83-72.

Freeman bucketed 27 points, below par for the Buckeye guard who now has 268 points in 8 games, a 33.5 average.

But Freeman was the difference as far as Meyer was concerned. "We knew what he could do but overplayed him. That's why their other boys scored so many points," the veteran DePaul coach said.

Four other Buckeye players scored in double figures as 15th-ranked Ohio raced to its sixth straight victory. The Bucks (7-1) led most of the way but needed a strong spurt in the final four minutes to wrap up the decision.

DePaul, hungry for an upset, put up a stiff battle before dropping its fifth game in 10 outings. The Demons, never ahead, deadlocked the score five times, the last at 49-49 with 15:27 to play. They trailed by only six points with five minutes remaining before Ohio widened the gap.

Chuck Ellis and Frank Howard hit 16 apiece for the winners while Ron Sobieszczyk topped the losing Demons with 23. DePaul, before last night, had lost to first-ranked San Francisco, Kentucky, Illinois and Minnesota.

At Dayton, the second-ranked Flyers turned on the steam in the second half to score an easy 86-34 triumph over Washington and Lee.

Dayton, sluggish most of the first half, broke through W & L's diamond zone defense in the final 20 minutes for the runaway victory, its ninth straight.

Capt. Jim Paxson paced the unbeaten Flyers with 22 points, while sophomore guard Arlen Bockhorn scored 17. Dayton built up a 39-30 intermission lead and Bockhorn's outside shooting in the second half opened the gates.

Paxson grabbed 19 rebounds to go with his 22 markers. Four of five Dayton starters were in double figures, but 7-foot center Bill Uhl had only eight.

Guard Ray Dieringer turned in a sterling defensive job against Dom Flora, the Generals' high scoring forward with a 29-point average. Flora was limited to 11.

In tournament action involving Ohio teams last night, Cincinnati was labeled a red-hot favorite to cop the second annual Richmond Invitational after routing Virginia 93-69.

The win pushed the Bearcats into tonight's semi-finals against undefeated Seton Hall, Cincinnati, hitting 54 per cent of its first half shots, grabbed a 49-33 halftime advantage and coasted in. Dave Plunkett and Phil Wheeler led Bearcat scorers with 26 and 20 points, respectively.

4 Teams Square Off In Sugar Bowl Tourney

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Utah, Marquette, Alabama and Notre Dame square off tonight to open the two-day Sugar Bowl basketball tournament.

The opening night schedule pits Utah against Marquette in the first game and Bama against Notre Dame's defending champions in the second. Utah and Alabama are picked to meet in the finals, with Utah the favorite there.

Alabama rules a strong favorite over Notre Dame, but the defending champions were lightly regarded last year.

NORTH NAMES CAPTAINS MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Northern players Wednesday chose half-back Lou Bakdael of Michigan and center Don Karnosack of Colorado to lead them against the

Basilio-Robinson Bout Is Discussed

NEW YORK (AP)—Way off in the distant future, say September at Yankee Stadium, a Sugar Ray Robinson-Carmen Basilio match is hanging in the sky.

Many pieces of a complicated puzzle must fall into place before it comes to pass but there's a chance of a battle that would attract worldwide attention. Basilio is welterweight champion.

"We're looking toward a Basilio match outdoors," said Ernie Bracca, Robinson's manager as he discussed the future of the three-time middleweight champ.

"We're anxious to get the rematch with Bobo Olson over as soon as possible," he said. "It's good news to hear they (Olson and manager Sid Flaherty) are going to take up the option. The date isn't definite but they tell us the tentative date is Feb. 24 at San Francisco."

"We've got lots of plans. Maybe Charles Humez in Paris in the spring. And there's an offer for 20 exhibitions in Europe. Most of all, we're looking to Basilio. That's the only big outdoor match around. Both sides are warm to the idea."

Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing Club, said any talk of such a match was "pretty far in the future." He said it had been discussed briefly, only because it had been mentioned but there was nothing concrete.

Ohio Cities Report Record Business Activity During '55

By ART PARKS
(Second of a Series)

Business in 1955 in Ohio has seen its greatest year. And the 1956 prospect is for a repeat performance. Here, in the second of a series, is a roundup of reports from Ohio cities on business conditions in the past year and prospects for the coming year.

Marion — Business conditions have never been better in the long history of Ohio's first permanent settlement; the outlook has never been more promising, say city leaders and planners.

Postwar industry pouring into the Ohio Valley is the big reason and no end to the stream is in sight. Recent additions to the area's industrial picture include both the Bakelite and Electro-Metallurgical divisions of Union Carbide & Carbon Corp.; B. F. Goodrich's Plastic Products division; American Cyanamid's Calco division; the Ohio Power Co. and the Globe Metallurgical Corp.

The employment picture never was brighter and unemployment compensation recipients are few. The future appears likely to hold new aluminum fabricating and petrochemical plants for the mid-Ohio Valley.

Portsmouth — The city's economy remained on an even keel despite a steady decline in construction jobs at the billion-dollar Portsmouth area atomic energy plant. Businessmen expect high-level activity in 1956.

Detroit Steel Corp. plans another seven million dollars' worth of new facilities on top of its 64-million-dollar expansion at its Portsmouth division plant this year. The new expansion will mean 200 more jobs.

Increased payrolls in steel and the shoe industry helped cushion the shock of diminishing job opportunities at the A-plant and kept the city's financial institutions afloat in 1955.

At year-end, only about 5,000 construction workers were on the payroll at the A-plant compared with 22,500 in August 1954.

While November 1955 retail sales slumped below those of November 1954, the sales tax total for the first 11 months of 1955 was above the 1954 figure.

Ironton — Lawrence County looks forward to one of its most prosperous years; business and civic leaders see increases over record gain in 1955.

Dow Chemical Co. will build a styrofoam and plastics plant at Hanging Rock. Chamberlin Co. of America has started to move part of its Detroit operation to Ironton. Ohio Power Co. has bought a site at Hanging Rock for a 150-million-dollar, million-kilowatt steam generating plant.

The Central Ohio Valley Industrial Council reports it has received more inquiries about industrial sites in 1955 than at any previous time.

Retail sales have shown consistent gains of more than 30 per cent since last summer. Even greater gains are predicted in general business. Ironton building permits were up more than 100 per cent through November.

Cincinnati — Business activity continues in high gear at year's end. Employment records are above 1954 levels. Unemployment compensation claims are 44 per cent below a year ago. Department store sales were up.

Electric power production continues to spurt. Latest reports indicate a 14 per cent gain over the similar 1954 period. Bank clearings will establish a record. Volume on the Cincinnati Stock Exchange will outstrip 1954 activity by a fair margin.

Commercial building construction, including industrial, schools, churches and hospitals is on the upgrade and indications are it will continue into 1956. Construction of single family dwellings showed an excellent gain. There was a drop in multi-unit buildings during 1955.

Up the busy Miami Valley from Cincinnati, they were reading nothing but plus signs. Bank debits in the valley's five major cities were up more than 200 million dollars or 12.4 per cent; postal receipts were up nearly 7 per cent; building permits increased 4 per cent and sales tax receipts for the 10 counties in the valley were up 9.2 per cent.

Wilmington — This center of hog production had a satisfactory business year—as good or better than 1954. But at year's end, implement dealers were beginning to feel the pinch of lower farm income because of the drop in hog prices.

Estimated value of construction in the city passed the 1½-million-dollar mark, principally in educational buildings.

Lima — While 1955 was a banner year, 1956 promises to be better. New Ford and Standard Oil Co. plants are significant new factors in the city's economy. The Sohio petrochemical plant, now completed, eventually will employ 180. The Ford engine plant will be a building in 1956 and will offer construction jobs.

Superior Coach Corp. and Lennox Machine and Tool Builders plan additions to plants. Neon Products, Inc., already has added space.

A 1,000-house subdivision is planned and as many as four shopping centers may be built; one large downtown department store is expanding.

Van Wert — The city's employment hit a soft spot in mid-year but it has begun to firm up again. A million-dollar sewer program probably will take up any employment slack.

Record building year leaves officials slightly mystified. They can't account for it, since employment is not increasing.

Merchants seem happier this year than last, despite impact of two strikes early in autumn. Decline in farm income hasn't seem to hurt much.

Probably one thing to help the general retail picture is the fact that a year ago the city's television boom was on full tilt; saturation point now seems near and available income now is going for other lines of goods.

Springfield — Trade and industrial activity is holding at peak levels. The rate of climb in industrial output has leveled out, but hasn't dampened optimism. In many important lines new orders are out-running shipments and unfilled orders still are mounting. The urge is for expansion, not curtailment. More and more business leaders

Commission Wins Fight On Pike Land Sale

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Turnpike Commission has won its fight in the state supreme court to pay a Toledo attorney only so much for land taken for the Ohio Turnpike.

The commission picture also is much better. In mid-December, Toledo's jobless totaled only 39 per cent of the figure during the comparable week of 1954. The most recent figure was 2,135 and that, because of seasonal layoffs, was 400 above the Nov. 26 mark.

Toledo views the future with confidence, a confidence expressed by the voters when they approved the port authority levy by a 2-1 vote.

Ashland — Production is going full blast in all Ashland industries. Industrialists expect to be going great guns through the first half of 1956, but expect a gradual tapering off as the year progresses.

Two new industries are opening in Ashland and those already here plan sizeable expansion next year. Home construction now is at the rate of about 800 units a year and contractors expect only slightly fewer in 1956. Retail merchants report record Christmas business. Car dealers report a pickup in sales despite Westinghouse strike at Mansfield which affects 350 Ashland families.

Columbus — General level of business in the metropolitan area last year climbed to new record highs. Business activity, as measured by the Chamber of Commerce index, rose to an average level of more than 57 per cent above its 1947-49 base period and nearly 10 per cent above the 1954 average. Such important components of overall activity as construction, money in circulation, retail sales and employment all hit all-time highs.

Despite a decline in housing starts, total construction set a new record for the third year in a row. Dollar value of all construction authorized in the metropolitan area will top 120 million dollars.

The city's bank debt for 1955 exceeded 10 billion dollars for the first time in its history. In August, they topped one billion dollars for the first time in any month.

Employment over the year reached a new high average of around 268,000. In November, the number of persons at work hit a new high for any month of 277,000 despite a Westinghouse strike that idled several thousand. Cash registers in the city's more than 5,000 stores rang up sales that topped 1954 by nearly 10 million dollars.

Athens — Observers here say "all indications pointing toward another good business year for Athens as Ohio University continues to expand and local industries maintain their pace." The university, its enrollment at an all-time high of 6,000 students this year, is rushing a multimillion dollar building program to provide facilities.

Industry—the McBee Co., Athens Machine Co., Midget Motors Co., and others—shows healthy signs. The city is completing a record year in construction of new homes and in the resulting increase in property valuation. More than 50 new homes and a record amount of remodeling have added nearly a million dollars to the city tax duplicate. During the first two weeks of December's Christmas buying season, sales of sales tax stamps in Athens ran 30 per cent ahead of last year.

Westinghouse To Take Over Cleveland Stations

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Westinghouse Broadcasting Co. is expected to take over radio station WTAM and television station WBNK here in the next three weeks, following government approval of a deal with the former owner, the National Broadcasting Co.

The Federal Communications Commission yesterday sanctioned the plan by a 6-1 vote.

In the deal, National acquires ownership of stations KYW and WPTZ-TV in Philadelphia from Westinghouse in return for the two Cleveland stations and three million dollars in cash. The swap ends a 25-year period of national ownership of the Cleveland stations.

Holiday Means Doughnuts food store now carries good ones.

Pile them high on a platter. Serve lots of hot coffee and let the crowd dunk to their heart's content.

Cider, of course, is welcome at a doughnut party. So is hot chocolate. If you want a fancier way to use doughnuts, try this recipe.

Maple Puff

One tablespoon unflavored gelatin, 1/4 cup cold water, 1/4 cup hot milk, 2 eggs, separated; 1 cup maple syrup, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup chopped nuts, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla.

Soak gelatin in cold water about 5 minutes. Add hot milk to slightly beaten egg yolks and cook over low heat until mixture thickens slightly, stirring constantly.

Remove from heat and add softened gelatin. Stir until thoroughly dissolved. Add maple syrup, salt and vanilla. Cool. Beat egg whites until stiff and fold into cooled mixture.

Add chopped nuts. Pour into mold. Chill. As mixture begins to congeal, pour into individual serving dishes over cut up doughnuts. Serve with whipped cream.

During this holiday season, teenagers home from school on vacation like to meet their friends at informal get-togethers — which leads us to the subject of doughnuts. Every young person welcomes doughnuts — either plain, sugared or frosted. And certainly they make things easy — nearly every-

Try Stuffed Bologna Rolls

Celebrate the birth of 1956 with bubbly soft drinks and tangy, stuffed bologna rolls. Add salted nuts for nibbling, ice cream and cake for dessert, and the crowd will be happy, well-fed and will be able to drive home safely.

Stuffed Bologna Rolls

Two dozen thin slices bologna (5-inch size), 2 dozen frankfurter rolls. Vegetable Filling: Mix together in large bowl: 2 cups chopped, shredded cabbage; 1 cup shredded carrot, 1 cup minced celery, 1-3 cup minced green pepper, 1/4 cup minced chives or onion.

Aspic dressing: Six hard-cooked eggs, 1 cup mayonnaise, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce, 1 tablespoon brown sugar, 1/4 cup chili sauce, 2 cups bottled, carbonated beverage (cola, ginger ale or lemon-lime type); 2 bouillon cubes, 2 tablespoons unflavored gelatin.

Shell eggs, separate and mash yolks, blend with mayonnaise. Chop whites and add together with seasonings. Blend well.

Put carbonated beverage in top of double boiler. Crumble in bouillon cubes. Sprinkle with gelatin and let stand until gelatin is completely moistened, then heat over boiling water until dissolved.

Blend 1/4 cup of gelatin liquid with mayonnaise mixture. Pour over vegetables and mix well. Keep remaining gelatin in pan over hot water.

Spread out bologna slices on table. Put a heaping tablespoon of filling in the center of each; spread to make a 1-inch strip down center of slice. Lap over free edges to make a roll, secure with food picks.

When all rolls are made, pour a very thin coating of gelatin liquid in bottom of one or more shallow baking pans (a 10 1/2 x 15 1/2-inch tin will hold 24 rolls exactly.) Place bologna rolls side by side on gelatin base. Spoon remaining gelatin over top of each roll.

Store in refrigerator until ready to serve. When ready, remove food picks and cut apart with table knife. Cut a wedge-shaped slice of bread from center of each frankfurter roll. Toast rolls lightly in oven. Place bologna rolls in center of each.

Note: For a smaller crowd, recipe may be cut in half.

New Year's Eve Supper Talks Turkey

Here's your plain and fancy New Year's Eve Supper. Plain because it features substantial slices of good turkey and cranberry sauce, deviled eggs and potato salad. Fancy because it also has a Jellied Fruit Ring. Slices of light fruit cake—from your holiday cache—and hot coffee will make a fine ending. The turkey slices can come from a bird you have roasted the standard way. Or if you are fortunate enough to be able to buy turkey parts, or have them in your own freezer or locker, you can use the following Poached Turkey recipe. The jellied cranberry sauce for the center of the turkey platter may be canned or made at home in a pretty mold. For the deviled eggs and potato salad, use your own favorite recipes. The Jellied

Fruit Ring will take a little doing. Here's how.
Poached Turkey
Ingredients: 6 pounds boneless turkey breast, roll and thighs, 1 tablespoon salt, 1 teaspoon white pepper, ½ cup turkey broth, extra cold turkey broth.
Method: Arrange the turkey meat, skin side up in a heavy pan with the pieces of dark meat on the bottom. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Add the ½ cup broth, or a little more if necessary, so it just covers the bottom of the pan. Cover tightly. Simmer (do not boil) until meat is just fork-tender—2 to 2½ hours. Cool broth and turkey meat separately as rapidly as possible. Cover turkey meat with cold broth and refrigerate promptly.

Jellied Fruit Ring
Ingredients: 2 packages lemon gelatin, 1 large red apple, ¼ cup lemon juice, 1 carton (12 ounces) cottage cheese (small curd style), greens, salad dressing (if desired).
Method: Make up lemon gelatin according to package directions; cool but do not refrigerate. Pour about ¾ cup of the cool gelatin into a 2 to 2½ quart mold. Refrigerate until firm. Quarter and slice apple very thin; do not peel. Dip apple slices into lemon juice to keep from discoloring. Place about 8 slices on top of the firm gelatin in the mold. Pour more lemon gelatin over apples to barely cover them but not enough to make them float. Refrigerate again until firm. Chop remaining apple slices very fine. Mix chopped apple with all but ¼ cup of the remaining lemon gelatin and pour into mold. Return to refrigerator until firm. Drain cottage cheese and mix with remaining ¼ cup lemon gelatin. Pour over firm gelatin to package directions; cool but do not refrigerate. Pour over firm cottage cheese layer. Chill till firm. Serve garnished with salad greens and, if desired, with a favorite salad dressing. Makes about 10 servings.

Deviled Eggs
Here are hints that will be helpful in preparing the stuffed eggs. If you want to put the yolk mixture through a pastry tube, be sure to sieve rather than mash the eggs with a fork. Deviled ham or minced anchovies will add zest to the egg-yolk stuffing, along with soft butter, lemon juice, prepared mustard, Worcestershire sauce, salt, pepper, and mayonnaise. A sprig of parsley or a tiny star cut from canned pimiento will look pretty perching in the center of each stuffed egg half.

Cranberry Garnish
If you use a can of jellied cranberry sauce for the center of your turkey platter you can make it look like a fat candle by standing it upright, rippling the top with a knife or spoon and inserting a "wick" made from a leafy yellow celery heart.

STRIKE IDLES 600
AKRON, Ohio (AP)—About 600 employees of the Quaker Oats Co. here were idled by a wildcat strike last night. The walkout started Tuesday when two workers in the shipping department were suspended for refusing "to perform a normal work assignment," a company spokesman said.

A union meeting was scheduled today to discuss the strike, which a union representative said was "unauthorized."

DIES IN COLLISION
MEDINA, Ohio (AP)—An automobile crashed into the side of a Baltimore & Ohio Railroad freight train east of nearby Lodi last night, killing the driver, Arthur Spellman, 19, of Homerville. His companion, Janet Fetzer, 18, of Creston, was taken to Lodi Community Hospital with back injuries.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

With the world aglow in the holiday season, four men went seeking their daily bread — for themselves and their womenfolk and children.

Their paths led the men to a union office. For only here could they find the work which would make the holiday gay for them and theirs.

They are strong men, but they wept. Not because they were denied work. But because they were surrounded and found themselves the targets of verbal obscenity which stirs nausea even in me, an old New York East Side gutter kid.

These men, led by ex-GI Bill Wilkens and Pete Battalies, are part of the opposition to the mob-ridden leadership of their local 138, of the Operating Engineers

Union in New York. They have not worked much since they took their civil rights seriously and rebelled against the men who control their daily bread and union book.

AT CHRISTMAS TIME they wanted work. But they heard the mother — the dead mother — of Bill Wilkens so filthily and brutally insulted that they wept.

Had they fought the band of strong-arm men who surrounded them in that union headquarters, their folk would have brought home to their folks battered skulls.

Finally, ex-GI Bill Wilkens, on hearing his mother besmirched in the foulest language, wept and shouted.

"Stop it, stop it, I wouldn't take that from any man, but I need work. I don't want to fight. All I want is a job."

They were told by the leering, foul-mouthed, eager-muskled men that they were troublemakers and to get out. They were taunted with, "When are you guys going to learn?"

THE FOUR MEN LEFT so that, at least, they would not break the hearts of their own folk. Wilkens' self-restraint is a measure, too, of the responsibility of the reform group.

The local union is part of the same International Union of Operating Engineers (200,000 strong) in the very core of American industrialism, which recently fined one of its officials $100 for kicking a complaining member in full view of the union's high council in a Washington hotel. That sounds like a reasonable going rate in this union for kicking an old man.

So shocked by all this is a group of ministers in New York that their spokesman has just talked to George Meany personally. They are certain now that the president of the AFL-CIO will take action. This can be done through the AFL-CIO's new Ethical Practices Committee, headed by the machinists' president, Al Hayes, an honorable man, indeed.

HAYES' COLLEAGUES on the committee are the Ladies' Garment Workers Union head, Dave Dubinsky, the Men's Clothing Workers' Union president, Jack Potofsky, the Sailors' Union chief, Joe Curran, and the Railway Clerks George Harrison — men I know loathe the mob.

This committee is planning to meet in January to prepare for the February meeting of the 29-man AFL-CIO Executive Council in Miami Beach. The committee is expected to submit formally to the Council a formula for the automatic handling of the kind of brutal treatment handed out to men like Wilkens and his reform group.

The fight on the ruthless quick-money men inside labor will therefore boil up in 1956. I must. Too many men are making too big a business out of too many unions. Too many Bill Wilkens are suffering for all this to seethe without eruption.

IF THE COMMITTEE ducks the issue, the press won't. The rank and file — now 15 million strong — must have some place to turn. And if ever any man inside labor can be their champion, it's Hayes, whose International Assn. of Machinists has rarely known scandal. The problem is complex — and immense. According to a National Industrial Conference Board survey there are 99 major unions, out of 194 in the U.S., whose constitutions permit the national officers to expel a member for any whim or reason including criticism of the leaders.

THE CONFERENCE BOARD study of 194 major union constitutions could find just one union which specifically gives the membership the right "to criticize any action or policy" of the international or local officers. This is the old AFL's Chemical Workers Union.

There are at least 12 unions which can expel a man, and therefore hurt his chances of working in his trade, without a trial.

All this places a great burden on Al Hayes' shoulders.

Charity Trust Gets $4 Million In Suit

YOUNGSTOWN Ohio (AP)—More than four million dollars was released to a Youngstown charitable trust yesterday as a 13-year-old legal snarl was settled in a hearing before Federal Judge Paul Jones.

The trust, the Leon A. Beeghly Fund, derives royalties from a cold-rolling steel process developed by the late Abram P. Steckel in the 1920's and widely used in the steel industry.

Settled in the agreement were lawsuits by the government and the Beeghly Fund.

The Beeghly suits sought about 42 million dollars from the government in patent infringement cases. The government, in suits filed here in 1943, contended it was entitled to royalty payments made on the cold-rolling process by steel companies that made government steel from 1943 to 1947. The government argued it was not obligated to pay royalties under the wartime Royalty Adjustment Act.

Steel companies, pending settlement of the suits, turned their royalty payments over to the court rather than pay them into the Beeghly Fund.

Medical School Gets Million-Dollar Grant

CLEVELAND (AP)—The medical school of Western Reserve University will receive a million-dollar grant from the Hanna Fund, trustees of the fund announced last night.

The grant was made to equal another million dollars which the school was offered by the Common wealth Fund of New York with the proviso that the sum be matched locally.

Trustees of the Hanna Fund and Malcolm Aldrich, president of the Commonwealth Fund, said the two million dollars would be made available to the school without delay.

Questions. Answers

Q — What is the origin of the expression to "cry havoc"?
A — When we use the expression that someone "cries havoc" today we mean that they forecast ruin for themselves or others. Havoc was a medieval war cry which was used to order armies to pillage cities.

Green Beans, Potatoes Combination

Let's start 1956 with a few new variations on old themes. Such as green beans and potatoes.

Green Beans Plaque
One 1-pound can small onions, 2 16-ounce packages frozen green beans, 2 tablespoons softened butter or margarine, 1 tablespoon rich brown prepared mustard.

Drain liquid from onions into a saucepan. Bring to a boil. Add the frozen beans and cook according to package directions. When beans are tender add onions and continue cooking until piping hot. Drain off any remaining liquid. Blend together butter or margarine and rich brown prepared mustard. Add to beans and onions; toss lightly until melted.

From West Virginia we get this suggestion for the old stand-by.

Butter Potatoes
Four medium-size potatoes, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, salt and pepper, chopped parsley, 1/2 cup grated sharp American cheese, 1/2 cup milk or light cream.

Pare potatoes and cut lengthwise in strips, as for French fries. Place in center of large piece of aluminum foil. (Use double thickness if foil is lightweight). Shape foil to form baking dish. Dot potatoes with butter or margarine; sprinkle with salt, pepper, parsley and cheese. Pour milk or cream over. Bring edge of foil up to cover potatoes; seal all edges to make a tightly closed package, but don't press. Place on cookie sheet or shallow pan. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 40 to 50 minutes. To serve, place foil-wrapped potatoes in basket or on serving platter; fold back edges of foil. Sprinkle with extra chopped parsley.
